3. Dues – Industry Partners are required to pay dues.

Section 2 – Establishment of Membership

Except as otherwise noted in these Bylaws, an individual or entity must apply to become a member of IONL, and the Chief Executive Officer of IONL shall determine whether the individual or entity satisfies the requirements for membership and will be admitted as a member. If there is any question regarding eligibility, the application shall be submitted to the Board for action. The Organization shall maintain a listing of members of each class, which shall be updated from time to time by the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 3 – Eligibility Status Change

In the event that a Member ceases to satisfy the applicable requirements of his, her, or its class of Membership, the Organization may, in its discretion, terminate the Membership, reclassify the Member to a different classification of Membership for which the applicable requirements are satisfied, or allow the Member to remain a Member of the same classification for a period of up to two (2) years.

Section 4 – Termination of Membership

A. Any person may resign his or her Membership at any time by submitting a written resignation to the President.

B. Membership may be terminated by the Board of the Organization for non-compliance with the provisions of these Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations.

C. Any Member suspended or expelled may be reinstated by the affirmative vote of majority of the Directors and payment of the applicable member dues.
Section 5 – Voting

A. To exercise his or her voting rights, a Voting Member must be present and in good standing, in which case each Voting Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote as to each matter to be voted upon by the Voting Members.

B. Matters submitted to vote shall be determined by majority vote of Voting Members present and voting; except as provided elsewhere in these Bylaws.

C. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by eighty percent (80%) of the Voting Members.

D. Proxy voting shall not be permitted.

ARTICLE IV – DUES

Membership dues shall be payable annually. The dues amount shall be recommended to the membership by the Board for approval by vote of the Voting Members.

ARTICLE V – AFFILIATION

Section 1 – American Organization for Nursing Leadership (AONL)
In recognition of a common purpose to develop and advance sound practices in the field of nursing leadership, the Organization shall align membership eligibility necessary for affiliation with AONL.

Section 2 – Indiana Hospital Association (IHA)
In recognition of the relationship between IHA and IONL, the Organization shall maintain a regular line of communication with IHA through a staff member designated by the President of IHA. Through this relationship and services furnished, any matter of mutual concern shall be given a forum and such assistance as needed.

Section 3 – Other Organizations
In the event that the Organization establishes a relationships with other nursing or similar organizations, affiliations or associations may be established and maintained with such organizations. This shall be under provisions determined and prescribed by the Board.
ARTICLE VI – MEETINGS

Section 1 – Annual Meeting
An annual business meeting of the Organization shall be held in the fall of each year. Interim affairs of the Organization that are deemed necessary for action may be conducted at a special meeting at the Board’s request.

Section 2 – Board of Directors

For any meeting of the members, the total number of Voting Members present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business so long as three (3) officers, one of whom must be the President or President-Elect, are also present. At any meeting of the members at which a quorum is present, a vote of a majority of the Voting Members present or voting at the meeting shall constitute the act of the Voting Members unless the Articles or these Bylaws require the vote to be a greater number.

Section 7 - Written Consent
Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board or any committee may be taken without a meeting if prior to such action, and upon notification to all Board or committee members, a consent in writing setting forth such action is signed by all of the Directors or committee members, as applicable, and is filed in the minutes of the proceedings of the Board or said committee. Any such consent shall have the same effect as a majority vote.
Section 8 - Meetings by Telecommunications Device

Any or all members, members of the Board, or committee members, as applicable, may participate in a meeting by means of conference telephone or communications equipment if all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other simultaneously. Participation in such meeting in such manner constitutes presence in person at such meeting.

Section 9 - Notice of Meetings

A. For any meeting of the members, a written or printed notice stating the place, day, and hour of the meeting and in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which such meeting is called shall be delivered, mailed, or sent by electronic means by or at the direction of the President to each member of record of the Organization at such address or e-mail address as appears on the records of the Organization not more than thirty (30) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of the meeting.

B. Unless otherwise expressly required herein, no notice shall be required for any annual or regular meeting of the Board of Directors. Notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of each special meeting shall be delivered by mail, facsimile, or other means reasonably designed to provide prompt notice. Such communication shall be made by or at the direction of the President to each director and addressed to his/her residence or last known business address, at least three (3) days before the day on which such meeting is to be held.

C. Notice of meetings of any committee shall be given by that committee’s chair in a manner consistent with the committee’s charter, if any.

D. Notice of any meeting may be waived in a document filed by a member, board member, or committee member, as applicable, with the President if the waiver sets forth in reasonable detail the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called and the time and place of the meeting. Attendance at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of that meeting.
